ADMINISTRATORS, TEACHERS, PARENTS & COMMUNITY ACTIVISTS—

SAVE THE DATE!

Equity in Action Conference

Equity: The Cornerstone of a Quality Education for All

June 10 & 11, 2011 at the University of Utah

A. Ray Olpin Union Student Union/Milton Bennion Hall/Orson Spencer Hall

Keynote Speakers

June 10, 2011—Educator Day

Dr. Augustine Romero

Augustine Romero is director of Tucson Unified School District's Student Equity. Dr. Romero has also co-founded the Social Justice Project, which is a collaboration between the school district and the University of Arizona's Mexican American Studies and Research Center.

June 10, 2011—Educator Day

Curtis Linton

Curtis Linton is a co-owner of School Improvement Network, where he is co-executive producer of The Video Journal of Education and TeachStream. He has spent the last 10 years documenting on video and in print the improvement efforts and best practices of the most successful schools and school systems across North America. Each year, he visits more than 100 classrooms and schools, capturing what they do to succeed with all students at the classroom, school, and system levels.

June 11, 2011—Parent Day

Dr. Manuel Escamilla

Dr. Escamilla earned a Ph.D. from the University of Kansas in curriculum and instruction. He has been an Assistant to the President for Equity and Diversity at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas; an Assistant Vice President for Diversity and Student Affairs at Metropolitan State College in Denver, Colorado; an Assistant Vice President for Minority Student Affairs at the University of Arizona in Tucson, Arizona; and the State Director of Head Start for Rocky Mountain SER (Service, Education and Redevelopment). Dr. Escamilla has spent most of his professional life working to improve opportunities in higher education for students of color.

Steering Committee Partners: Utah State Office of Education, University of Utah, Utah Charter Schools, Coalition of Minorities Advisory Committee, State Office of Ethnic Affairs, Canyons School District, Davis School District, Granite School District, Ogden School District, Salt Lake City School District, Tooele School District, and the Inclusion Center

Questions? Contact 801-538-7640 or amanda.charlesworth@schools.utah.gov.