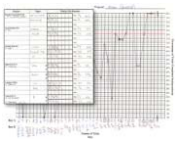
TRAINING FOR

Discrete Trial Teaching

A STRATEGY FOR INTENSIVE INSTRUCTION



Cohort I
2011-2012

SPONSORED AND PRESENTED BY THE UTAH PERSONNEL DEVELOPMENT CENTER
AND THE UTAH STATE OFFICE OF EDUCATION

OUTCOME: Participants will implement the discrete trial teaching strategy with fidelity. Participants will submit student progress data and make progress toward passing the Teacher Skills Competency Checklist with 80-100% accuracy.

TO REGISTER: Six training slots for a team of two from the same classroom or same physical location are available for Cohort I. Participants must be recommended and approved by the LEA. Contact Jocelyn Taylor 801-538-7725 jocelyn.taylor@schools.utah.gov to register.

TRAINING DESCRIPTION: The training will occur in two phases as explained below. Participants will travel to Ogden for 2 days in the summer, travel to a demonstration classroom 3 times during the 2011-2012 school year, and will receive on-site classroom coaching for 1-2 days during the 2011-2012 school year.

Phase One:

- 2 days during the summer for instruction, practice, and observation in the demonstration classroom.

June 7-8, 2011
Highland Jr. High School
325 Gramercy Ave.
Ogden, Utah 84404
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Phase Two:

- 1 day observation at a demonstration site (dates to be determined).
- 2 days practice with coaching at a demonstration site (dates to be determined).
- 1 - 2 days on-site classroom coaching (dates to be determined).
- Phone consultation as needed.

USOE WILL PROVIDE:

- Overnight accommodations for eligible participants.
- Breakfast and lunch.
- Stipend for June 7-8, 2011.

LEA WILL PROVIDE:

- Mileage and incidental travel expenses as necessary.
- Substitute arrangements as necessary for 3 days during the 2011-2012 school year.

Questions call Jocelyn Taylor 801-538-7726 or Amy Peters 801 510-1015