

TITLE I PART C - Migrant Education

“The term ‘migratory child’ means a child who is, or whose parent or spouse is, a migratory agricultural worker, including a migratory dairy worker, or migratory fisher, and who, in the preceding 36 months, in order to obtain, or accompany such parent or spouse, in order to obtain, temporary or seasonal employment in agricultural or fishing work” SEC. 1309 No Child Left Behind Act of 2001

Utah currently serves approximately 4,000 migratory students through programs in 13 districts. They are Alpine, Box Elder, Cache, Davis, Provo, Jordan, Millard, Nebo, North and South Sanpete, Ogden, Beaver, and Iron County.

The purpose of the Migrant Education Program is to offer opportunities to migrant students that will ensure that they have the same level of academic success as all students. The Migrant Education Program focuses on the following:

- Reading
- Mathematics
- English language acquisition
- High school graduation
- Family literacy
- Preschool

Migrant Education also provides families with additional opportunities to receive health services, social services, nutrition, and other education.
