

Unlock the power of AI in your school—where innovation meets instruction and every educator becomes a tech trailblazer. This fully funded, three-year opportunity will allow up to twelve schools to integrate AI into everyday practices of evidence-based instruction, collaboration, and data-driven decision-making.

Why AI?

On average, teachers work 52 hours per week, 7 hours more than average US workers.

The teacher burnout rate is 44%, the highest burnout rate in the US.

Artificial intelligence is projected to grow from a $6B industry today to a $30B industry by 2030.

Optimize Your School Day

Improve efficiency, accuracy, and innovation in your school by enabling learner-centric AI integration.

Instruction

Implement evidence-based instruction with AI-powered support of teacher clarity.

Data Use

Analyze student data and compile findings using AI to make data driven decisions.

Collaboration

Employ AI to build data driven, efficient, collaborative meetings, eg. PLCs.

Make AI Work For You

Building on the structures of the USBE's Assessment to Achievement project, a staple in school improvement initiatives since 2015, A2A:AI brings cutting edge artificial intelligence technology to your school. Engage in learning with USBE technology specialists and connect with expert coaches from MGT to employ AI platforms that can bring your instruction, data use, and collaboration to the next level.

In this three-year cohort, spanning August 2025 to June 2028, take away tangible skills that help you use AI to build your leadership capacity, maximize team efficiency, and increase student achievement. Participating school teams will join a fully funded professional learning experience, with included funding for substitute reimbursements and educator stipends during out of school time.

Leadership Support

Orient your vision through baseline data collection, professional learning, and action planning sessions in the first six months.

Build a community of practice with an annual book study and consultancy touchpoint with peer leaders.

Building Team Capacity

Engage in quarterly professional learning sessions with your school leadership team, bringing back strategies for schoolwide implementation.

Receive tailored feedback via quarterly progress measurement visits and regular coaching support.
