PAM HAYES, STAND4KIND

Pam Hayes started Stand4kind 14 years ago because she believes every student deserves to feel like they belong and have connections. Through teaching leadership, empathy, self-esteem, emotional wellness, and kindness, they provide a way for schools to reduce suicide and bullying among students. Her experience includes 25 years as a curriculum writer and she is certified in Positive Behavior Interventions and Support (PBIS), Early Childhood Dev., Content filtering and Tip lines. Pam holds a Bachelors in Education, and she created one of the first Tip lines for reporting over 18 years ago. She loves putting the puzzle together by finding the right people and tools to help schools grow and change their school culture.

GLORIA COOPER

Gloria Cooper has been serving in public education for 39 years. She spent 35 years in Cypress Fairbanks Independent School District and now 4 years with Stand4kind. Gloria has served in several different capacities throughout her career. She has been an Elementary teacher, Middle School Assistant Principal, Middle School Director of Instruction, as well as, the Boys Town Consulting Teacher for Texas, and the Director for the Student Services Department and trainer for Stand4kind.

Gloria is an experienced Practitioner in the many facets of classroom management and student behavior. Including Restorative Practices and Positive Behavior Interventions and Support (PBIS). She has presented at the Boys Town National Conference, the National Homeless Conference, as well as various State conferences on Restorative Discipline Practices and the Positive Behavior.
