 _____ This is an application for a State Approved Endorsement Plan (SAEP)
 for the Journalism Endorsement (see page 3)

There are two ways to earn the Journalism Endorsement

1. Successful completion of university or other approved professional development courses matching the requirements (see Page 2), or
2. Demonstrated competency (see Page 3).

University and Professional Development Courses

1. Courses are to be upper division or graduate level.
2. Courses taken online with an accredited institution will be accepted.
3. Professional Development courses used to satisfy the requirements of the endorsement must be preapproved by USBE and entered in CACTUS.

Instructions for Completing the Application

1. For university courses, attach original transcripts (internet transcripts are not acceptable), with the courses highlighted. In some cases, the university course name on the transcript is non-specific, e.g. "Special Topics in Education." If this is the case, submit either a syllabus from the course or a letter from the instructor or department verifying that the course meets the requirement.
2. For professional development courses, attach a copy of the Cactus report, with the courses highlighted.
3. On Page 2, indicate the courses you have completed that satisfy each of the requirements. Please clearly highlight them on the transcripts so there is no question which courses you are using to fill requirements.

Requirements to Earn the Utah State Board of Education Journalism Endorsement

A teacher with a major or minor in Journalism will receive an endorsement to teach Journalism classes if the requirements below have been completed. A teacher without a major or minor in Journalism may earn an endorsement to teach Journalism classes by completing 24 credits in Journalism, consisting of approved university coursework, approved professional development courses, or a combination of both. The 24 hours of credit must include courses that meet the requirements listed below.

Demonstrated Competency for One or More Requirements

In lieu of university and/or approved professional development courses, the applicant may apply for an endorsement through demonstrated competency. Demonstrated competency will be approved under the direction of the USBE Content Area Specialist. The applicant must schedule, document, and submit the following:

Participate in an oral interview under the direction of the USBE Content Area Specialist or designee/s to determine applicant's declarative, procedural, and conditional research-based knowledge of each individual course. This is usually done by a committee of specialists.

AND

Participate in a formal observation conducted by USBE Content Area Specialist or designee/s to demonstrate classroom instructional application of the Journalism Endorsement course content.

State Approved Endorsement Program (SAEP)

1. An approved SAEP for the Journalism Endorsement allows a secondary teacher to teach Journalism classes while working on, but before completing, the endorsement—meaning they are not yet highly qualified in Journalism.
2. The applicant has two years from the date the SAEP is approved to complete all requirements for the endorsement.
3. The applicant must have a minimum of nine hours toward the endorsement before applying for the SAEP.
4. The applicant must document the minimum of nine hours on this application by attaching and highlighting transcript evidence.
