

2020 Changes to Educator Licensing

CURRENT LICENSE HOLDERS:

License Designations - On July 1, 2020 all current Utah Educator Licenses will convert to an Associate or Professional Educator License. Please see Board Rule R277-301 for more details about these new licenses. Feel free to watch this informational video about the changes coming to Educator Licensing.

- If you hold an Alternative Routes to Licensure (ARL) or Academic Pathway to Teaching (APT) license and are hired and working on your Professional Growth Plan (PGP), then you will continue working on your PGP on the converted Associate Educator License.
- Anyone with an Associate Educator License will need to work with a state-approved university or LEA-alternate educator preparation program in order to move to a Professional Educator License.

THOSE SEEKING A UTAH EDUCATOR LICENSE:

- For employment to finish up the 2019-2020 school year, please work with your Human Resources department.
- For school year 2020-2021 and beyond: If you would like to become a teacher in Utah, you can complete a university educator preparation program or follow a local education agency (LEA)-alternate pathway to licensure. To utilize an alternate pathway program, you will need to earn your Associate Educator License, be hired at an LEA with an approved alternate educator preparation program, and work with the LEA to complete all requirements for the Professional Educator License.
- Associate Educator License Applications will be available on the Educator Licensing website starting March 1, 2020.
 - Requirements for the Associate Educator License include:
 - Bachelor's degree (or higher) from a regionally accredited university or evidence of appropriate CTE expertise.
 - Cleared Utah State Board of Education \(USBE\) Background Fingerprint Check.
 - Submitted original transcripts from all universities. For an international degree, send your academic records for a transcript course-by-course and degree evaluation to a Foreign Credential Evaluation Service.
