

HUMAN TRAFFICKING: AWARENESS AND PREVENTION

Allison Smith, m.s.

Education Outreach Specialist, Trafficking In persons program, ric-aau

Points of Conversation:

- Where do you live/who do you live with?
- Who takes care of you?
- How did you meet your “boyfriend?”
- Tell me about your tattoo
- Does anyone take all or part of the money you earn?
- Do you feel trapped in your situation?
- Have you ever been forced to do work you didn’t want to do?
- Do you have to contribute money to your family?

Resource	Contact	Description
Emergency DCFS	911 1-855-323-3237
NHTH (hotline) Answered 24/7	888.3737.888 or Text “BeFree”	NGO dedicated to eradicating HT and restoring freedom to survivors – Utah resources
UAGO Tip Line for Human Trafficking	801-200-3443	Not for emergencies. Leave message and you will be contacted.
ICAC Tip Line	801-281-1221	Not for emergencies. Leave message and you will be contacted.
Utah Trafficking in Persons Task Force	801-281-1206 www.utiptaskforce.org	Training, Policy, Education, and Case Management
Trafficking In Persons Program RIC-AAU	(801) 990-9476 Andrea Sherman, Director Coordinator/Referrals trafficking@aau-slc.org Allison Smith, Education/Outreach Allison.Smith@aau-slc.org	NGO provides direct services to meet basic needs, case management, mental health and substance abuse treatment, etc. Also provides discipline specific Human Trafficking training throughout Utah.